

Consignor # _____

CONSIGNMENT CONTRACT

1. Clothing items should be clean, pressed, on hangers provided by RE and not in need of repair (NO holes, stains, tears, missing buttons, worn or stained cuffs or necklines, etc.) Any item not meeting these criteria will be donated. Any clothing items left in a bag or tote will be considered a donation. We also accept home décor items, jewelry, books, toys and electronics in workable order.
 2. You will receive 40% of the actual sale; JWL gets 60% of the sale. All prices and markdowns will be determined by management. Items are subject to go on sale after 2 months on the floor. Sales determined by management. Additionally, items not deemed to be valued at greater than $3.00 will be considered a donation to JWL.
 3. Consigned items will be kept on display in your name for 3 months. This period will begin when the item is initially offered for sale on a "new arrival" day. We reserve the right to pull items off the floor earlier due to changing seasons etc.
 4. Checks will be processed and mailed to the below stated address on a quarterly basis.
 5. At the end of consignment period, any unsold items will be donated without further responsibility to you, the consignor. At any time JWL may terminate this contract if we feel that the consignor/consignee relationship is not working.
 6. Although we take every precaution to protect your things, used merchandise cannot be insured. Therefore, it should be understood that Return Engagement is not responsible for loss due to fire, theft, flood or damage of any kind. All articles are left with the consignee at the risk of the consignor.
- Every attempt will be made to sell consigned items at a fair and competitive price that will benefit you as a consignor and as a customer. Pricing suggestion forms for higher end items are available; however, JWL has final authority on selling prices.

To be eligible to consign with Return Engagement you must have two members in good standing sign for you and the RE Steering Chair must approve before contract is binding. The RE Steering Chair has final approval and will notify you of the decision within 30 days.
